“ Michael was a quiet guy and didn't let a lot of people get close to him. We were blessed to be his close neighbor for 13 years and that he allowed us to be his friends. We often made extra of foods we knew he liked, especially pasta. In turn, he would bake cookies for us. He once made his Mom's pineapple upside down cake in a skillet for us because he knew how much we liked it.

Michael was smart, he knew so much about nature, loved animals and growing things. He kept abreast of what was happening in the world. He loved GOD, his church, and his truck.

One of the hardest things about our decision to leave Florida 2 years ago was leaving Michael behind. We knew we would miss him. He is healthy and happy now....he is home.

We love you Buddy,
Forrest & Gloria
