From Aunt Joyce, Mrs. Bowen's sister:

Oh, Ruth, my dear, dear sister! How I love you and miss you! I was the talkative, adventurous one; you were the quiet, steady and reliable one. I always looked up to you and am thankful to have had you for 88 years. My loss is bittersweet--bitter because of my loss of you; sweet because of the happy memories we made together through the years. And thankful for the wonderful assurance that since each of us asked Jesus into our hearts, we WILL see each other again in Heaven. Until then, rest in peace.

“ Dear sweet Miss Ruth,
you are missed so much. Miss Ruth as anyone who knew her she was a very quiet lady.
She never had much to say during our meetings with The Friends of the Community Centers. She was the Secretary before I Mary came to join the group. At the end of every meeting Ruth had her calendar ready to tell us when the next meeting was. Those were usually the only words we heard from her. She never complained and never criticize She had a beautiful smile and a holly disposition. Rest in Peace
Lecanto Senior Center Friends Will miss her.

“ I had the honor of knowing Ruth since I was 10 years old. Ruth was such a precious lady, a true example of a child of God. She has now received a well deserved Heavenly reward.

“ Oh I'm going to miss you very much. Ruth was in my Bible study on Wednesdays and we have missed her greatly for the past few weeks. We were all saddened to just find out yesterday that she had passed. I will always remember this sweet and kind and silent wonderful woman that she was. I will also remember helping her when she was in an accident last year. Thank you Ruth for teaching me what a kind and godly woman should be.

“ Ruth was my friend from a young age. Even though there was an age difference she always showed kindness and encouragement to me.

Ruth was steadfast in her faith and in her quiet manner expressed love for the Lord and to others.

“ Aunt Ruth was an important part of my Christian heritage. I always knew she loved God, and she loved her family. What a wonderful example she was of a faithful daughter, wife, and sister who helped her parents, husband, and her brothers before each of them passed on. Now it is her turn to receive her reward from the Savior she served all her life. Thank you, Aunt Ruth.
